ow important is the Music?

Brides Surveyed After The Vows...

72% of all brides say they would have spent more time choosing their reception entertainment.

Brides say their highest priority is their attire, followed by the reception site and caterer. Entertainment is among the least of their priorities.

78% of Brides say they would have made the entertainment their highest priority!

When asked, 81% of guests say the thing they remember most about a wedding is the entertainment.

DJ or Live?

It's no longer an "either or" proposition.

The ideal solution is to find a band that can play a variety of music early in the evening and a DJ that can provide the fun.

This IS your day but you have asked friends and family to celebrate it with you. Many have traveled great distances at their personal expense to share this day with you. It is important to give consideration to all of your guests when choosing the music. While you may love Indie Electra music, be a rock solid rock fan, can't live without your country, big on blues or the number one hip hop fan it all may sound to noise to grandma who thinks Nat King Cole was the last great singer. Now you can have a band & DJ that offers a variety of styles, genres and plays something from all decades so all guests enjoy your celebration.

Live music adds elegance to any special occasion and a good DJ brings the fun.

Older guests relate more to live music while the 20 something's in the group may prefer a DJ.

Most bands find it difficult to keep current with the top songs on the charts in a spectrum of genres because that list changes on a weekly basis.

So what's a bride to do? Have your cake & eat it too!

D'Vyne Entertainment sets the mood for an elegant affair with a live band performing classic love songs starting with the cocktail hour through dinner. When it's time to clear the table, cut the cake and fill the dance floor, DJ EdMo takes over. This package offers the right mix of music to make your wedding a celebration.
